Senior Class Prophecy

In 1961, on May 22nd I boarded a Western Airlines DC-6 for Phoenix, Arizona. I was on my way to visit my husband who was stationed in the Air Force there. We had been married about ten years and I had spent most of that time traveling to wherever my husband was stationed.

As I was sitting back comfortably in my seat knitting I heard a familiar laugh. I thought to myself I just can't be mistaken about that laugh. I'm sure it must be Ruth Mitchell. "I got up and looked around and sure enough there was Ruth just as cute as ever. That didn't come as much of a surprise but what did was, the handsome man sitting beside her, none other than Clayton Hoppe. I spoke saying, "Hello, this is really a surprise, but a nice one. I'm so glad to see both of you. Please tell me all about yourselves." Clayton said, "Well, Joyce, I guess you know I always did keep an eye on the girl who sat in front of me. After we graduated, we started going together and you can just about guess the rest from there on. But, there is someone you'll have to meet, she's coming up the aisle now. She's four years old and her name is Evelyn." After I had chatted with them for awhile I went back to my seat to rest awhile before landing in Denver.

It wasn't long before we landed and I got off the plane. I was told I would have to wait several hours before I could catch a plane to Phoenix. I decided to go into Denver and windowshop in order to pass the time. As I was walking down the street I chanced to bump into someone and upon looking up to make my apology, I was amazed to see standing in front of me Leonard Austin. We both exclaimed simultaneously. "Leonard." "Joyce." We opened our mouths again to say together, "What are you doing here?" It was I who got in the next few words, explaining to Len where I was going after which I said, "But, I still haven't found out about you." He replied, "I never have married, I guess the right girl just hasn't come along, or maybe the trouble is that I haven't settled in one place long enough to become that well acquainted with someone.. I'm a salesman for the United Steel Company and I travel all over the United States. I enjoy it very much and am happy with my work." "What happened to your twin brother, Lee," I asked. He said, "Oh, I saw them just a few days ago. Lee is running a dairy farm in Wisconsin. Of course you knew that he married Janet Greenawald, but I don't suppose you ever found out that they have two sets of twins, twin girls six years old and twin boys two years old. They really have their hands full, but seem to love the children very much and get along themselves just as perfectly as they did when they went to school together. I surely am glad that I got to see you. I must be getting along now. "Goodbye" "Goodbye," I said, "I hope I see you again sometime."

I continued to stroll around in Denver's fine business districts until it was time for me to go back out to the airport. When I reached the airport, I went immediately to the plane which was in. The stewardess was helping people into the plane. When she turned toward me she gave a gasp of recognition. Janet Seeger said, "Why, hello Joyce. I surely didn't expect to see you. I haven't time to talk to you now, I'll come in and see you later." I said "All right," and went to my seat in the plane. When Janet found time she came over and sat down beside me and we talked of our school days and of how Janet had happened to become a stewardess. She had married Larry Williams who was the pilot of the plane. Larry had wanted her to be able to work with him so she went to school and became a stewardess. "I really love the work," she exclaimed, "and most of all I love being able to be with Larry all the time." Finally she said she would have to leave as the plane would be landing soon and she had to check and see that everyone had their safety belts fastened. I wished her future happiness as we said goodbye.

I sat back in my seat and thought about what a wonderful trip this had been. I had seen all of my schoolmates except one and had even found out all about him. How lucky we are I thought to have all turned out so well.

Class History

In the fall of 1939 twelve excited youngsters embarked together on a new adventure for they were entering first grade. The new class consisted of Leland Austin, Leonard Austin, Allen Free, Clayton Hoppe, Raymond Kaufman, Marlin Leatare, Richard Northrup, Earl Pillard, Janet Seeger, Junior Sutherland, Melvin Tallman, and Richard Walderbach. Our teacher for the first year was Miss Rita Gibbs.

Entering the second year we still had twelve on the roll, for as we lost Junior Sutherland and Melvin Tallman we gained Lester Oellrich and Althea Yeater. Our teacher for this year was Miss McMillin.

Our class number still stayed at twelve as we entered third grade under the guidance of Miss Ethel Johnson. We lost Richard Northrup. Shirley Siefken joined us.

During the fourth year, we lost three but happily gained three classmates. Ethel Johnson was again our teacher this year.

The class of 1951 entered the fifth grade with three less pupils, our roll read Leland Austin, Leonard Austin, Robert Eiben, Paul Eiben, Clayton Hoppe, Janet Seeger, Shirley Siefken, Richard Walderbach, and Althea Yeater. Our teacher was Mrs. Dorothy Guthrie.

In the sixth grade Richard Walderbach and Althea Yeater moved away but we picked up Angellie Ray during the year which made our number eight. Dorothy Guthrie was our teacher.

Entering the seventh year our enrollment fell to six, for although James Jensen moved back among us, Paul and Bob Eiben and Angellie Ray moved away. Our teachers were Mrs. Dunlap, Miss Miller and Mr. Mervin Blanchard.

As we progressed into the eighth grade, our number remained the same, for as James Jensen moved away and Joyce Gerdes moved in at the start of the second semester. Our teacher for the year was Mrs. Vera Ireland.

The class of 1951 moved into high school feeling very grown-up and wise. Our teachers were Mr. Greenawald, Miss Miller, and Mr. Wright. We numbered eight and consisted of Leland Austin, Leonard Austin, Joyce Gerdes, Dorothy Hayes, Clayton Hoppe, Janet Seeger, Shirley Siefken, and Deloris Catlett.

The same group entered the tenth grade except for the addition of Ruth Mitchell. The teachers for this year were Mr. Greenawald, Mrs. Peck, Miss Miller, and Mr. Whaley.

There was a drastic reduction in our class number when Delores Catlett, Dorothy Hayes and Shirley Siefken moved away. Our teachers for the eleventh and twelfth years were Mr. Greenawald, Mr. Ridout, and Miss Ament. The Sunny Six that remained intact through the eleventh and twelfth grades were Leland Austin, Leonard Austin, Clayton Hoppe, Janet Seeger, Joyce Gerdes and Ruth Mitchell.

Class Will of 1951

We, the class of 1951 of Morley Consolidated High School, of the County of Jones, and the State of Iowa, being of sound mind and body after four strenuous years, do hereby revoke all former wills, bequests and devices of form heretofore made by us.

To Tommy Achenbach, Leonard Austin wills his height so that he will be the star forward on the basketball team.

To Rose Marie Ortgies, Joyce Gerdes wills her make-up-kit. O. K. Rosie let's make as much use of it as Joyce did.

To Kenneth Brokaw, Clayton Hoppe wills his butch so that he can look like Bing Crosby also.

Janet Seeger wills her always ready answer book to Bob Hora.

The Senior Class wills to the Juniors their perfect attendance record.

To Kenneth Findley, Lee Austin wills his good behavior in literature class. Now let's not be too quiet.

To Rosemary Shumaker, Joyce Gerdes wills her slimness.

Clayton Hoppe wills to Duane Jurgensen his big ears. Now let's make as much use of them as Clayton did.

To Ruthy Vernon, Ruth Mitchell wills her quietness.

To Dale Findley, Lee Austin wills some of his weight. Try using Atlas' Muscle book.

Janet Seeger wills her speed breaking typing record to Laurene Connor.

To Lowell Nelson, Leonard Austin wills his morning beauty sleep, only try taking them on Saturday morning instead of school days.

To Roxy Ruhl and Ruthy Vernon, Ruth Mitchell makes a leap year's advancement.

Joyce Gerdes wills to Janet Greenawald men from Mor lee not Manchester.

To Mr. Greenawald the Senior Class wills for his biology Class new specimens that aren't canned.

To Miss Ament the Senior Class wills the knowledge book of rules on where to park in Iowa City (at the curb, not the middle of the street.)

The Senior Class wills to Mr. Ridout a new bunch of excuse papers as he used up all he had on us this year.

To the Junior Class the Seniors will their ability to get their plays out in the fall and not in the spring.

School Activities

The Sophomore class was host to an initiation party on September 15th. After the Freshmen had been "taken care of", dancing and refreshments were enjoyed by all.

At Christmas time the Student Council sponsored a Christmas dance. Refreshments were served afterwards.

A Christmas program was given by the grade children and a few of the high school students, on the afternoon of December 22nd for the parents and community. Each room held a party and opened their gifts.

All of the service men who had attended Morley school received a box of candy for Christmas. This project was carried out by the teachers who made the candy and sent it to them. Letters of thanks have been received from all of the service men.

The Morley school participated in a magazine campaign sponsored by Crowell-Collier Publications and directed by Bob Rush of Cedar Rapids. Clayton Hoppe was chosen as local campaign manager. Chairman for the various classes were as follows: Janet Seeger, Senior; Larry Williams, Junior; Shirley Hansen, Sophomore; Kathleen Hay, Freshman; Dorothy Baute, Junior High. During the campaign $259.50 magazines were sold of which the school's share was $95.15. High salesman for the campaign was Janet Siver, Eighth grade. The money raised was placed in the Athletic fund.

The girls' basketball team took a trip to Meservey, Iowa, on December 16th where they played that team. After the game refreshments were served to the girls at the school. Then they went home with different girls from Meservey to spend the night. The girls had a very nice time.

On December 14th, three of our Morley students gave speeches on Tuberculosis and Heart Disease over radio station WSUI in Iowa City. The students were Joyce Gerdes, Ruth Mitchell and Marjorie Mitchell.

The students of Morley were entertained by a Magician and Ventriloquist, also by Dwight L. Wood, Baritone and his wife, Pianist, in November.

Four Morley girls entered the Isaac Walton Conservation Essay Contest. They were Kathleen Hay, Carol Eldred, Carol Pulver and Nancy Hoppe. Carol Pulver placed 3rd and won a flash bulb camera. The grade students also sent in many scrap books. Rita Russell placed 1st with hers and won a wrist watch.

A Declamatory contest was held this year with eight students competing. Joyce Gerdes was winner of the dramatic division, Evelyn Findley was winner of the humorous division, and Carol Pulver was the winner of the oratorical division. These three girls went to Monticello where they competed with pupils from four other schools. Evelyn won a second division rating, while Joyce and Carol each won a third division rating.

Most of the American Literature class went to Olin to see the movie "Hamlet". It was enjoyed by those who attended.

The girls' basketball team was given a turkey supper on February 21st at the Quality Cafe in Anamosa for winning the County Tournament. Their host and hostess were Mr. and Mrs. Behnke.

On February 7, Louis Lemke, Game Warden, visited Morley school and gave a speech on "Wild Life and Soil Conservation." He also showed the students a film in connection with his topic.

The Morley Girls' Basketball team attended the Lowden and Coggon game at the Coe Gym in Cedar Rapids. The Boys' Basketball team attended the Solon and Marion games at the University Fieldhouse in Iowa City.

The Junior and Senior Classes presented "Hobgoblin House" on March 30th.

Morley was selected to have the Girls' Sectional Tournament. Everyone helped make signs, sell food, sweep floors and other things. It was a very successful tournament. The programs were printed through the courtesy of the typing class.

The Senior class attended a Journalism Convention at Des Moines in October. During their stay there, they went to a football game and heard several interesting speakers. On the way home they stopped at the Amanas for a "Steak Supper".

The Inter-Class Tournament was held March 20, 21, and 22. The Sophomore class was the winner. Half-time entertainment was furnished by the lower grades and many future ball-players were discovered.

The grade children did their bit for the year by putting on an operetta.

The Girls' Glee Club, comprised of the high school girls and directed by Miss Ament, sang two selections at the Christmas program. They also entered the Music Contest.
